

SOUTHERN PACIFIC NARROW GAUGE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

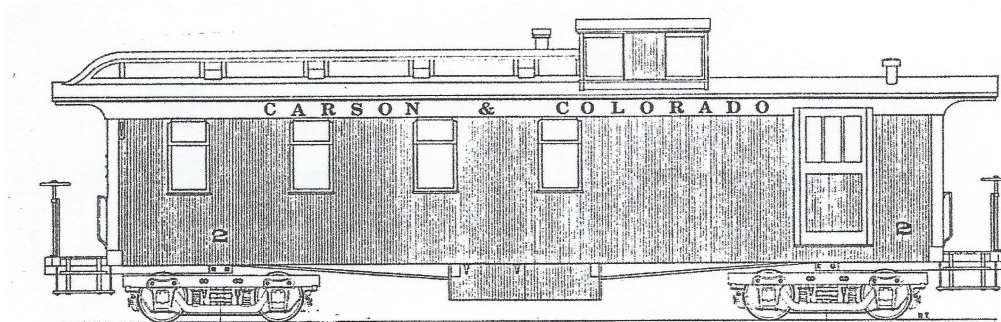

2017 CONFERENCE

JUNE 8-11

“H.M. YERINGTON: MINES, MILLS, AND RAILROADS”

CO-HOSTED BY THE VIRGINIA AND TRUCKEE
RAILROAD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

BASED AT THE GOLD DUST HOTEL AND CASINO IN CARSON CITY NEVADA

Come join in for four days of Historical field trips, discussions, and presentations as we explore the life and interests of Henry Marvin Yerington, Nevada's Prominent Businessman and Railroad Builder.

Presentations will cover Mr. Yerington's involvement in several railroads including the Carson & Colorado, Virginia & Truckee, and the Bodie & Benton as well as his mining and timber industry activities and his involvement in the industries the Owens Valley of California.

Conference activities will begin with a “meet and greet” with presentations on Thursday evening beginning at 6:00PM. Appetizers will be served and there will be a no-host bar.

We will spend an afternoon and evening at the Carson City Railroad Museum with a tour of equipment, presentations, and a steam up.

The conference will continue through the weekend with 2 field trips to historical locations, evening presentations by noted historians, restoration raffle, and the SPNG Historical Society annual meeting.

Register early, the conference is limited to 110 persons.

SPONSERED BY THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC NARROW GAUGE HISTORICAL SOCIETY Inc.
